

Refugee Seniors in the United States Video Questions to Consider:

1. What are ways you might try to learn English?
2. What can you do to remember the English you learn?
3. What kind of work can you do now in the United States?
4. What are your hopes for later employment?
5. The refugee senior from Iraq says, “My advice for the refugees is to be patient. That’s the most important thing. They shouldn’t rush and they should take everything step by step.”
Do you think this is good advice? Why or why not?
6. What are some steps you can take now to be able to meet present and future challenges?
