Refugee Adjustment of Status Flowchart

Adjusting Your Status from Refugee (I-94) to Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR; Green Card): Adjustment of status is required. Refugees who do not begin the process of adjustment of status are violating their immigration visa and are at risk of immigration penalties, including being expelled from the United States.

1. After 1 year in the United States, ask your case worker/ manager to refer you to an authorized immigration specialist.

2. Make an appointment with the authorized immigration specialist.

3. Meet with the authorized immigration specialist to find out what steps you need to take to adjust your status to that of a Lawful Permanent Resident.

4. With the help of the authorized immigration specialist, do the following:

- a. Make an appointment at a doctor's office to fill out the Vaccination Check (Form I-693).

- b. Fill out the application for permanent residency (Form I-485).

- c. Obtain two passport-style photos.

- d. Make a copy of your Form I-94 (proving your refugee status).

- e. Fill out the biographic form (Form G-325A).

5. Submit your application with all required documents for permanent residency.

6. You will receive a notice stating that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) received your application.

7. You will next receive an appointment for biometrics (fingerprints). You must attend the appointment to have your fingerprints taken.

8. You may receive a notice to go for an interview with USCIS.

9. USCIS will send you a letter telling you whether they have approved your application or not.
